

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Ken Locke, Jr., son of Ken and Leona Locke, a fifth grade student at Simmons Elementary School in Aberdeen, was diagnosed as having the Charcot-Marie-Tooth form of Muscular Dystrophy in 1980; and,

WHEREAS, With Ken's determination to fight Muscular Dystrophy, he doesn't let it stop him from participating in activities for boys of his age; and,

WHEREAS, Ken is never heard to say "I can't do this or that"—he accepts MD and challenges it; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize and make note of of this young man's courage and determination:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 4, 1988, as in South Dakota, and I urge South Dakotans to join Ken and his family in the fight against Muscular Dystrophy—it is needed more now than ever.

KEN LOCKE, JR., DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Ninth Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTON, SECRETARY OF STATE